

Who Should Be Involved In Medication Reconciliation?

Exercise: Describe your role in medication management on your team. Are you responsible for:

- Prescribing?
- Medication history-taking?
- Identification and clarification of medication order discrepancies?
- Communication of medication information on transfer or discharge?
- Documentation of medication order discrepancies?
- Education of patients and families about medications?
- Follow up communication with other health care providers after discharge?

Describe your role in medication reconciliation: